WHY BOOKING WITH US

LET'S CREATE MAGIC

Because your wedding deserves more than just posed moments, it deserves to be remembered as it truly felt.

I capture the real, unfiltered parts of your day, the quiet glances, the spontaneous laughter, the happy tears. My goal is to blend into the moment, not interrupt it, so you can stay fully present while I document the magic as it naturally unfolds.

In the end, you won't just remember how it looked, you'll remember how it felt.

As part of the Kino Heart Wedding Videography team, we're happy to offer you a combo rate and a smooth, well coordinated experience.

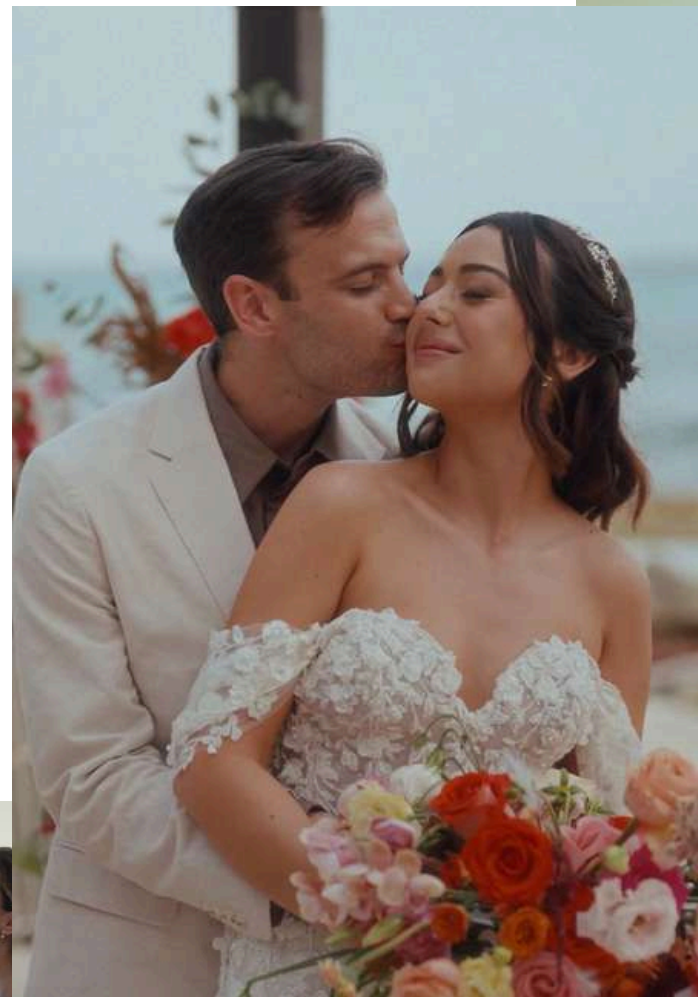

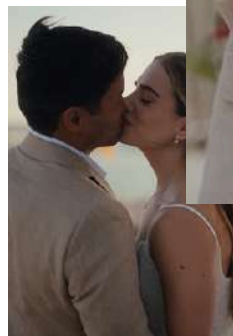

AUTHENTIC. REAL. YOU.

Style & approach

My approach is intentional and intimate, so you can stay present and enjoy your day while I create content that feels authentic, emotional, and true to you.

I capture the raw, real, and emotional side of your wedding, the little moments, the in between, the energy, because your day should feel just as magical in your memories as it did in the moment. Delivered fast, ready to relive and share. No posing. No pressure. Just your story, as it truly happened.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTION

---

I am always here for you and available anytime to answer all your queries and provide guidance and support to make sure that your wedding content creation experience is smooth and stress-free.

Q What exactly does a wedding content creator do?

A I capture behind the scenes, candid, and emotional moments throughout your wedding day, all in short form vertical video, perfect for sharing on Instagram, TikTok, or just keeping for yourselves. Think of me as your personal storyteller with an iPhone and an eye for the real moments. The best part is that you will receive the edited videos 48 hours of the event.

Q A content creator replace the videographer or photographer?

A Not at all. My work is complementary to your photography and videography team. While they focus on cinematic coverage, I capture the spontaneous, unfiltered, and intimate moments happening in between, without getting in their way.

Q Do you offer videography services as well?

A Yes! I'm part of Kino Heart, a creative team that offers both wedding videography and content creation. Our videography style is documentary, emotional, and timeless, while my role as a content creator focuses on capturing spontaneous, behind-the-scenes moments in short form vertical video. If you're interested in booking both services together, we'd love to offer you a special combo rate.

Q Do you deliver content on the same day?

A Yes!, I can share clips with iPhone users via AirDrop during the event, perfect for posting in real time or reliving special moments right away.

Q What happens if there are last-minute changes to the event?

A I understand that plans can change. If there are significant changes to the schedule or location, please let me know as early as possible, and I will do my best to adapt without any issues.

Q How much advance notice is required to book?

A I don't request a minimum number of days in advance. If you'd like to book my services, I'd be happy to check availability for you.
